

Colored Schools

Old Pine Grove-B

Vacant

Howards Creek-C

Carrie Laine

Becknerville-P

E. Cross

Duards Creek-I

Mary E. Taylor

Union-M

Lula Quisenberry

Ford-O

Lula Berry

Goose Creek-G

W.N. Mason

Wades Mill-K

Katherine M. Roberts

Junction-N

T. N. Berry

Midway-E

Corda L. Boone

Indian Fields-F

Mary Kincaid

11 subdistricts

Source: Winchester Sun, June 24, 1911

Prepared by Jerry Cecil

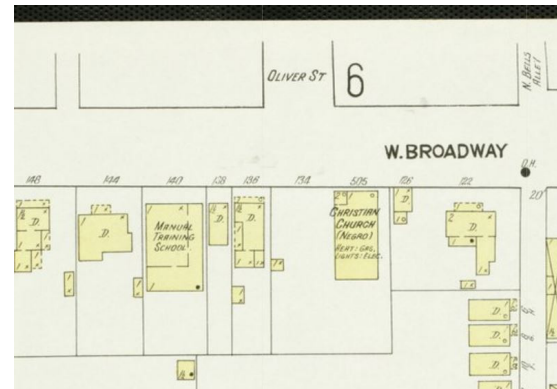

Handout of Early Clark County Colored Schools

© Jerry Cecil, historian

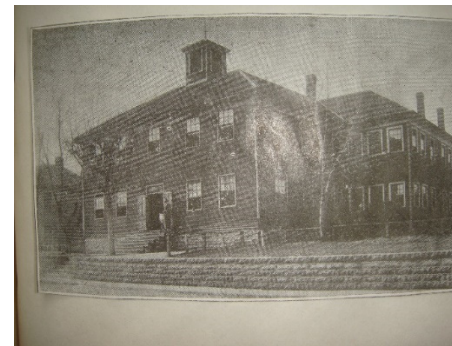

1869-1930

Winchester Negro School, funded by the Freedmans Bureau, 1869, Broadway. (photo by Engle)

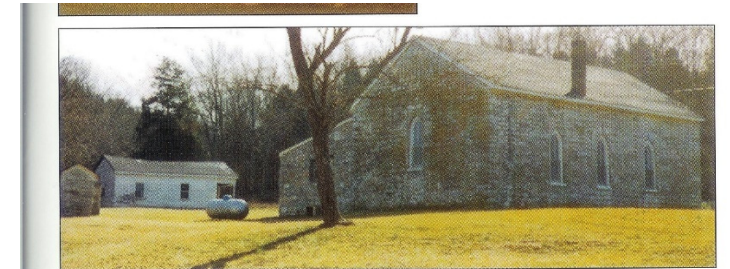

Winchester Negro School, 140 W. Broadway, from 1907 Sanborn Insurance Map, later called Manual Training School.

Oliver Street Colored School, circa 1892-1930, addition on right side added in 1907.

Oliver Street Colored School, 1940 (photo by Ogden), built by WPA in late 1930s.

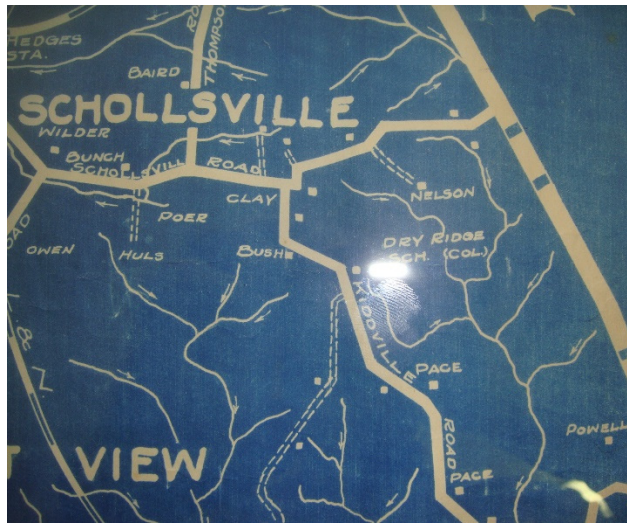

New addition and the one-room school built after the Civil War. 1993

All that remains of the school to left rear of the Stone Church is the foundation. (credit: Dr. C.R. Smith)

Becknerville Colored School, 1899-1930, 3150 Waterworks Rd.

(credit: Jerry Cecil)

1925 Clark County map showing location of the Dry Ridge Colored School, in eastern Clark County near Schollsville.

Goff Colored School, near Goffs Corner, from the Fiske University Collection

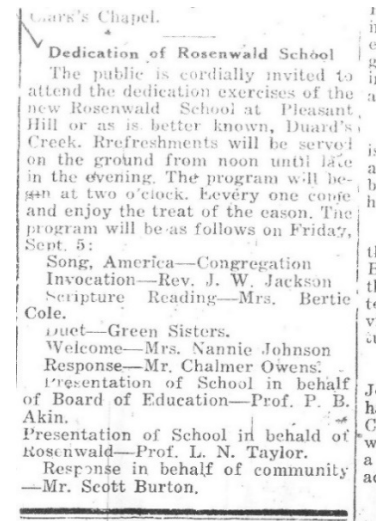

Fiske Collection showing another Goff Colored School, date unknown

Duards Creek Colored School, next to Pleasant Hill Baptist Church,

Athens-Boonesboro Rd near Hootentown, used prior to 1925.

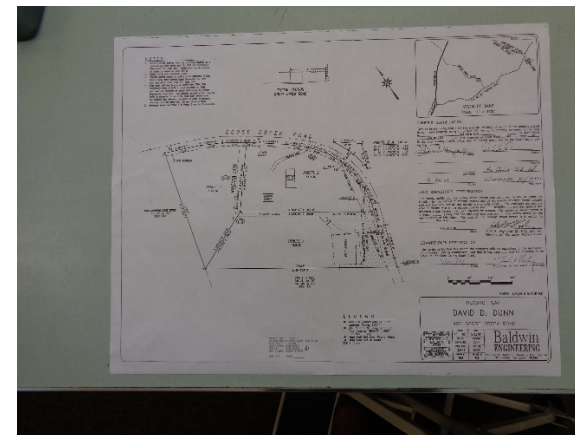

Winchester Sun, Aug 23, 1924

Rosenwald Pleasant Hill Colored School on Jouett Creek (Duards), dedicated 1925 (credit: Jerry Cecil)

Rosenwald Colored School, Waterworks Road, 1929,(Fiske)

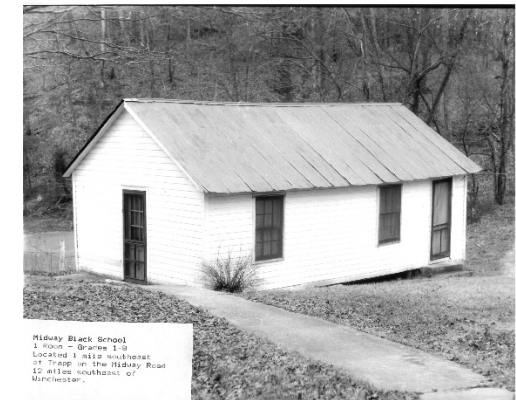

Goose Creek Colored School, on site of CME church, 1911-?

No photo of school or church building.

Indian Fields Colored School, Trapp-Goff Corner Rd on Cunningham Lane. (credit CC Bd of Education)

Midway Black School
1 Room - Grades 1-8
Located 1 mile northwest of Trapp on the Hibday Road
1/2 mile southwest of Winchester.

Midway Colored School, on property of Midway Baptist Church, Midway Rd, near Trapp. (Credit: CC Bd of Ed)

Midway Colored School, Red River Rd, south of Trapp (credit: Jerry Cecil)

Oliver Colored School, 1892, addition to the right added in 1907.